Dear Parents and Carers,

Your children may already have told you that their class teacher, Miss Larcombe, has been absent from school recently.

Unfortunately, Miss Larcombe will not be returning to school during this half term. Whilst she is away, the class will be taught by Mrs Lewis.

Mrs Lewis spent time with the children last week and came highly recommended to us. She is an experienced teacher who brings great enthusiasm to the role and has already formed a lovely relationship with the class. We have been delighted with how quickly she has got to know the children and settled into the school.

We appreciate that any change of teacher can cause uncertainty, but we are confident that Mrs Lewis will provide consistency and high-quality learning experiences for the children during this period. We will, of course, keep you updated regarding any further changes.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding.

Kind regards,

Mrs Manley
